

Virginia Tech partners with LinkedIn for enhanced recruiting and learning

Technology -enhanced Learning and Online Strategies (TLOS) has announced that the upgrade from Lynda.com to LinkedIn Learning is now complete. LinkedIn Learning offers unlimited access to the same great content from Lynda.com through an intuitive, more-customized learning experience. Plus, LinkedIn Learning adds 5,000+ new instructional videos. This includes courses that are approved for continuing and education credits.

Virginia Tech students and employees are encouraged to activate LinkedIn Learning at <https://www.linkedinlearning.vt.edu>. Past users of Lynda.com can activate their accounts and transfers their learner histories. You should have received an email from LinkedIn about activating your account.

If you encounter problems, please contact 4help.vt.edu Additional information can be located here <https://ptdrv.linkedin.com/luy7vuh>

LinkedIn Learning also has a training session titled “Advance your skills with LinkedIn Learning” This video will tell you all about the learning platform and how to use it. Below is a screen shot of the training.
